First Swoncho!

Some call it a sweater while others call it a poncho. We call it a swoncho! This is a great easy to wear piece that you can throw on with jeans, dress it up for a night on the town or cuddle up in the entire weekend. Packed with learning, this swoncho is knit in a very traditional yet unique style. First, the front and back are knit separately, then blocked and seamed leaving you ready for the finishing touches (my favorite!) Whether your first or your fortieth sweater project, there is much to learn! (You will be a pro at picking up stitches!)

Project: Ribbed Batwing Laura Zukaite

Date & Time: Thursday eves - Aug 11, 18, Sept 1 & 8 6 - 7:30pm

Dingley Dell Sweater!

This light and airy top is reminiscent of the Rugby shirts of the 90's. Customize with your own color choices and select wider or smaller stripes. The options are endless! This top is worked top down, no sewing required! Different from some of the other summer tops we have knitted, these shoulders are set in and not raglan for a different technique to learn. The V-neck, sleeve and hem ribbing show off fun color detail. Sleeves can be worked with either magic loop or DPN, and we will be using a stretchy sewn bind off.

Project: Dingley Dell by Isabell Kramer
